BLACK MAIL.

We call attention to the continuation, and, we trust for the reputation of the General Assembly, the end, of the discussion upon the appointment of a committee to investigate charges against certain members and others, preferred by the Senator from Craven. It is the first time in the history of legislative bodies that we have ever seen so much restiveness, under similar circumstances, and so much covert opposition to a measure which commends itself to every honest man. After the reiterated charges and the strong language of Senator Sweet, it seems to us to have been the duty, as it should have been the pleasure, of every member to have demanded the appointment of the Committee with the most ample powers consistent with law. The miserable attempt to give the matter a party turn and to restrict the investigation, by curtailing the necessary powers of the Committee, was a shallow subterfuge which could only be connived at and supported by the guilty parties or their senseless tools.

For the first time in the history of North Carolina has it become necessary to investigate charges against the members of the Legislature, charged by one of their fellows, of preying upon the necessities of the State. Bribery and corruption has never before blackened the Legislature of North Carolina, and we would hope, for the reputation of the State, that the charges were false now, were not too many well authenticated rumors current as to the men who have received pay and the amounts that have been paid to them.

It is useless for certain members to become indignant at these charges and appear surprised at the investigation. It is impossible for them to have been ignorant of the rumors and reports current throughout the State. The press has charged corruption upon the Legislature and their venality has been denounced upon the stump. Now that official attention has been called to the matter, they appear surprised and become indignant that their honor should be impugned.

Let the investigation proceed, and if there be criminals let them be exposed and punished. We are only sorry for their sakes, and not for the country, that the New Hanover members have placed themselves in such equivocal positions in regard to this investigation.

[From the Rochester Union, Nov. 28.]

HORRIBLE MURDER OF AN INFANT BY ROASTING UPON A STOVE.

We have received the particulars of a horrible affair which occurred about a mile from Corning, Wednesday last. At the place indicated, there resides a family named McCulloch, consisting of Mr. and Mrs. McCulloch and their three children, aged respectively five, three and one and a half years. The husband is represented to be a shiftless, indolent fellow, and his wife has been compelled to labor to support the family. She has lately been selling sewing machines, and, on Wednesday last, started on a trip through the surrounding country for that purpose, leaving her children in charge of a girl named Barber, aged 18 years, whom she had hired for the purpose. In the evening, the youngest child cried, and was fretful, when, it is said, Barber threw it upon the floor, and stamped upon it until it was almost lifeless. Then taking the little one up she held its hands upon a hot stove until they were terribly burned. The child was too far gone to utter more than a faint scream while it was being roasted. Barber then threatened to throw it into a well, when the other children, who had witnessed the whole thing, told her that if she did they would tell their mother. The girl then wrapped the child in a blanket or bedquilt, and placed it in a bed, where it was found by the mother, who returned home Wednesday night, dead. The marks of brutality were plainly visible on its little body, and, after questioning the children, information was given the coroner. After an investigation, he ordered the arrest of Barber, called a jury, and an inquest was in session yesterday. The case creates considerable excitement in the vicinity where the horrible affair occurred, as well it may. We were unable to learn any of the antecedents of the girl Barber.

[It is a matter for great surprise that this occurrence should have happened North. Doubtless the inhuman murderess was from the South originally; otherwise, it is beyond comprehension!—Ed.]

From the Washington D. C., Union, Nov. 27.

VOUDOU.

The most disgusting accounts are continually coming from the Southern States in regard to the habits and tendencies of the black race in that section. They are going back into the worst and wildest barbarism. Among the negroes of the lower portion of the Gulf States there has long been a prevalent superstition that is called by the African name of "Voudouism" or "Vowdoism." The substance of it is a full belief in the power of certain of their people to work upon other people with all manner of evil spirits or good spirits. These supposed controllers are entirely native blacks, unmixed Africans, and the spells of terror and hope and joy and expectation which they have thrown all around the rest of the colored population are unlimited. The Voudou men are objects of superstitious veneration. They curiously contrive a number of curious objects, such as feathers, dogs' teeth, clay taken from graves, blood, eggshells, bits of glass, &c., &c., which, however combined, they can use for conjuring purposes, and they employ them to make the negroes worship with superstitious veneration. This sort of sorcery prevails in Africa among the worshippers of the Fetich. It is growing in the South. This sort of religion, accursed religion, horrible religion, if it can be called religion, will prevail in the South if the negroes are to have control in that section. They are to be left to their own tendencies; and all their tendencies; their irresistible tendencies, are to their native barbarism, the barbarism of their cannibal ancestors. They will not find enough food in the South, and they will seek to eat the white folks. It is no matter of surprise that the miserable superstition of Voudouism or Vowdoism is prevailing in the South. Christianity is slow in its teachings. The terrible teachings of the negro are quick, seizing forcibly and at once upon their miserable imaginations and minds. The results are not doubted. The whole of the African population of the South will soon be as bad as the Hottentots, or worse.

LIFE INSURANCE.

The Most Vigorous and the Most Liberal Insurance Company in the Country.

BROOKLYN LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

141 Broadway, N. Y.

ASSETS OVER

CHRISTIAN W. BOUCK.....President.
ABRAM D. POLHEMUS.....Vice President.
WILLIAM M. COLE.....Secretary.
D. F. FACKLER.....Consulting Actuary.
DANIEL AYRES, M. D. LL.D.Med. Examiner.

POLICIES ISSUED AS GOOD AS UNITED STATES BONDS.

POLICIES VALUABLE IN LIFE AS AT DEATH!

The BROOKLYN LIFE is the only Company in the country which guarantees a definite surrender-value to every policy on which two or more annual premiums have been paid; this amount, in dollars and cents, is endorsed on every policy issued. Should any policy-holder become unable to pay his premiums, he can thus know the cash worth of the policy at any time after two annual premiums have been paid.

This certainly is the greatest inducement and most tangible advantage ever accorded to parties insuring their lives.

Among the advantages offered by the BROOKLYN, which thoroughly evince the determination of the officers to make it the MOST LIBERAL Life Insurance Company in the United States are:

1st. TOTAL REMOVAL OF ALL RESTRICTIONS ON TRAVEL AND RESIDENCE. The Assured may travel or reside anywhere they choose, the world over, without extra premium or special permit.

2d. A Loan of one-third of the Premium to the Policy-Holder Annually.

3d. All Policies are non-forfeitable after two full annual premiums have been paid.

4th. Rates as low as are consistent with financial soundness, and less than those of almost all Companies which accommodate their assured with loans.

5th. Dividends annually (after second year) in cash. Dividends are divided on the CONTRIBUTION PLAN—the only equitable manner of dividing the earnings of a Life Insurance Company. The Contribution Plan was first conceived by Mr. D. F. Fackler, now Actuary of this Company and has been adopted by most of the best managed Life Companies in this country.

The BROOKLYN LIFE has paid and now pays to its Policy-holders LARGER DIVIDENDS than ever before paid by a Life Insurance Company!

6th. Promptitude in paying losses.

7th. No charge for policy or stamp.

The success which the "BROOKLYN" has achieved, fully exemplified in its rapid and healthful growth, is a convincing proof of the confidence reposed by the public in its soundness, integrity and liberality.

NOTICE.

ÆTNA LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY has paid another loss. Read the following:

$3.000.

WILMINGTON, Sept. 16th, 1868.

Received of the Ætna Life Insurance Company, by the hands of W. H. Crow, General Agent, Three thousand dollars, in full payment of all demands upon the Life Policy of my deceased husband, Larkin F. Dunn. No. of said Policy 48,783.

With many thanks for this prompt payment in the hour of my affliction and need,

I am, respectfully,

HESTER A. DUNN.

Added to the above, may be mentioned another fact, proving the wisdom and beneficial results of Life Insurance, and also the fidelity and good faith in which this old and well tried Company deals with its members.

In less than three years this Company has done more than all others combined, to relieve the wants of the widows and orphans of North Carolina.

It has paid Policy, No. 15,773 ... $5,000
" " 10,618 ... 5,000
" " 13,647 ... 5,000
" " 24,692 ... 3,000

THE SENTINEL.

JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR.

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 10, 1868.

OLD AND NEW NORTH CAROLINA.

During the recent display of pyrotechnics, which occurred in the Senate Chamber, under the guise of an Electoral College, a young man, of more pretensions than merit, we judge, by the name of Pearson, spoke flippantly of the old North Carolina, as contrasted with the new North Carolina, which was already eclipsing it. Such a depreciation of historic renown and so slighting a reference to the grand prestige of the past would have been in bad taste, and the evidence of sorry sense, and worse temper, coming from any one, but, emanating from a mere political fledgling, who has prematurely clipped the shell, they presented an execrable exhibition. And yet the idea was not original with him; it was but the echo of the Radical cant of the day.

Unfortunately, it is too true that we have a new North Carolina, as contra-distinguished from that upon which we looked with so much pride, affection and reverence, a few short years ago. But blunted must be the sensibilities and vitiated the feelings of any son of hers, who will rejoice over her fall, and hail with acclamations, disparaging to her memory, the dwarfed and spurious successor. Such men are commended, in some quarters, however, as progressive! Aye, progressing to the ruin of all that has been sacred and venerable in the past,—to the displacing of the old household gods and the substitution of strange and false images,—to the mutilation of all that was peculiarly native and indigenous,—sturdy honesty, modesty, and frugality,—beneath the tread of alien and unfilial feet. Out upon such crazy, ruthless and unprincipled progress, say we!

These pœans to the new order of things are only sung by three classes of men, leaving out the negro, whose brain is naturally addled by the (to him) unfortunate change in his relations. You may trace them, in the first place, to the rapacious adventurer, the prowling carpet bagger, who knows and cares nothing for the grand old associations that cluster around North Carolina, and who is, from the very nature of the case, as much incapable of appreciating the virtuous sentiment of State pride, as a Root-Digger Indian would be of appreciating the beauty of the Parthenon. It is, indeed, a new condition of things to him, which sees him in positions of trust and responsibility, once filled by good men, which it never entered his imagination to aspire to, under the old or any healthy or normal status of affairs. It is a new and inviting field to him, which promises the uninterrupted glutting of his filthy, mercenary and cormorant desires, and enables him to run riot in ill-gotten plunder,—backed by the sword and a deluded and illiterate black horde.—You may further trace these gratulations over the new era to the native Pariahs, who have been weighed in the balances of public confidence and found wanting, who have sought, by baseness and treachery, to mount the ladder and always been thrust back, because they did not deserve to rise, and who gloat over any change that enables them to baffle the popular scorn, and to wreak a mean revenge for the popular dis esteem, which was only the result of their own baseness. And yet, again, the refrain is caught up by vain, silly and prurient youths, and older men, whose ambition far outstrips their merit, and who think they perceive, in the new turn of the wheel, the certainty of that lucky number, which never could have come to them, except by the most marvellous chance. Forgetting, too,—these latter,—all the while, that a quiet contentedness with the lesser walks of life, public or private, for which they were cut out, would have been best for them; since a pigmy is but a pigmy, though perched on a steeple, and a dwarf, moral, intellectual or physical, but exhibits his deformity the more glaringly, in proportion to the conspicuousness you give him!

Yes, we have a new North Carolina—and every true son of the State hangs his head in humiliation and sorrow as he looks upon the evidences of the metamorphosis. In the Gubernatorial chair a man, rejected and flouted, over and over again, by the people of old North Carolina, and owing his accidental elevation (which commands no respect, while obedience is yielded,) to an unscrupulous reversal of all his former principles! In the Judiciary, mountebanks, ignoramuses, and men who bedraggle the ermine in the mud and mire of politics!—In the offices of State, mercenary squatters and incompetency! In the Legislative Halls, where once giants sat, adventurers, mannikins and gibbering Africans! Of course, there are many honorable exceptions, now, and to such we look with hope and confidence, though their wise, prudent and patriotic counsels are often but the signal for jeers and gibe. A brazen front where once was modest merit! Peculation, extravagance and prodigacy, where once were fidelity, economy and justice! Bribery and venality reeking, where once was the perfection of integrity! Negro soldiers guarding the desolate halls and decaying buildings, which were once the seat of science and learning!

But oh! it is said, the new State will be covered with Railroads, and the whistle of the engine will be heard in every valley, and trade will revive, and money will flow in, &c., &c. These things, however desirable and however eagerly they should be sought, now, as always, but poorly compensate for loss of good name, and are dearly purchased when they are bought at the price of the impoverishment of an already groaning people. We would say nothing to discourage such enterprizes. We wish them God speed, where they can be honestly and judiciously accomplished.

We cling, in our affections, to the North Carolina of old. We have no fancy for the meretricious trappings of the new. We have no toleration for a state of things, where the Almighty Dollar is so potent, so selfish, the great object of worship, to the neglect of the things that make for solid and valuable character. No—this is not the age of the Saints,—here in North Carolina, at least,—but, rather, the age of brazen falsehood and open theft!

THE UNIVERSITY.

We have been furnished with a pamphlet copy of the proceedings of the first Annual meeting of the Board of Trustees. They are manifestly doctored for the public eye, in order to shield certain parties, who voted against Judge Pearson's resolution, looking to a separation of the races at the University.

We have heretofore vindicated the action of the old Board of Trustees, with reference to the sale of the Agricultural Land Scrip, in a manner which must have been satisfactory to any just or fair mind.

We perceive that another meeting is to be held on the first Wednesday in January, at which time the matters embraced in the following resolutions, adopted at the last meeting, will come up for consideration. We publish them, although we, in common with the great majority of our people, have ceased to feel any interest in the University, and shall regard any action of the "Board of Trustees" with indifference.

Resolved, That the Executive Committee be instructed to ascertain whether a sufficient number of teachers, competent to carry on the exercises of the University, can be induced, in consideration of the use and occupation of the College buildings, apparatus, &c., without charge for a term not to exceed five years, to take charge of the institution, with the understanding that, should the State send young men to the University to be instructed as teachers of common schools, the State will pay the ordinary room rent and the tuition fees to the teachers, and, in case such an arrangement shall prove impracticable, that then the Executive Committee, after advertisement of the fact, shall proceed, on the 1st. day of January, 1869, to elect —— Professors, upon such terms as may be deemed best by said Committee, and that the exercises of the University be commenced on the first day of February, A. D., 1869.

Resolved, further, That ample provision shall be made for affording the benefit of a University education to colored people, at some other place than Chapel Hill, which shall be equal in all respects to that furnished to white pupils at Chapel Hill.

THE FORTHCOMING REPORTS.

We find in the New York Tribune abstracts of what will be the contents of the reports of the Secretaries of the Treasury and of the Navy, and of the Comptroller of the Currency.

Mr. McCulloch thinks that the national finances are in a very sound condition, and that the currency is not too redundant. He is opposed to passing a law at present, enjoining the return to specie payments. He thinks that the entire expenses for the next fiscal year need not exceed two hundred and fifty million dollars.

The best piece of information he gives is that the public debt has been reduced between Nov. 1, 1867, and Nov. 1, 1868, by the sum of $35,624,102.82.

The Comptroller of the Currency, it is said, is quite sharp on the management of the National Banks. He asserts that only nine sixteenths of their loans are legitimate business paper, and says that the system of certified checks and of call loans is the cause of much of the late financial troubles—also, that these furnish seventy millions of capital and one hundred and twenty millions of credit to brokers and financial speculators.

The report of the Secretary of the Navy is said to be very satisfactory and interesting. He says that the entire navy list now foots up two hundred and six vessels, carrying 1,743 guns. He praises the efficiency of this arm of the service in protecting American commerce, and refers with pride to the fact that throughout Admiral Farragut's entire cruise he did not receive a single application from any American citizen for the redress of any wrong—that the flag was everywhere respected, and that the name of an American citizen was everywhere a sufficient protection.

BRIBERY AND CORRUPTION.—We might fill our columns, were they not otherwise pre occupied, with extracts from the State Press, with reference to the Black-Mail investigation now pending. With but the one exception, so far as we have observed, of the Governor's paper, their tone is that of indignation at the course of those, in the Legislature, who have sought to hinder or procrastinate the inquest, of mortification that the necessity for such an investigation should ever have occurred in our State, and of entire concurrence in attributing the evil to Radical rule. We ask attention to the article from the Wilmington Journal on our first page.

THE PENITENTIARY.—Amid the slashing commentaries of the Press, in various parts of the State, upon the action of the Committee in the purchase of the 8,000 acres of land, ten miles from the site of the proposed Penitentiary, for the modest little sum of $100,000, we beg them to remember that Mr. Robbins, the Senator from Rowan, one of the Committee, presented a minority report, dissenting from that action. We have been endeavoring to find room for that report, and hope yet to be able to do so. As the Old North State truly observes, Mr. Robbins, in this matter, has shown a laudable zeal for the best interests of the people of North Carolina.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE.—The Telegraph furnishes a very meagre notice of this document, which was sent in to the two Houses of Congress, on yesterday. It is said to be a very lengthy paper—filling about six of the closely printed columns of the New York Herald. We will publish it entire, or give a comprehensive abstract, as our space may admit.

Legislature of North Carolina.

SENATE.

WEDNESDAY, Dec. 9, 1868.

The Senate was called to order at 11 o'clock.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES.

Mr. Osborne, from the Committee on the Judiciary, to whom was referred a bill to prohibit persons from hunting on the Sabbath, reported favorably.

By the same: A bill concerning Magistrate's Courts; unfavorably.

By the same: A bill to extend the powers of County Commissioners for special purposes; reported a substitute for the same.

Mr. Barrow, from the Judiciary Committee, reported favorably on a bill for the relief of Jas. Rumley, of Carteret.

Mr. Lassiter, from the Committee on Propositions and Grievances, reported a resolution in favor of W. J. Hicks.

Mr. Brogden, from the Committee on Finance, reported a resolution in favor of W. W. Medford, clerk of the late county court of Haywood.

Mr. Rich, from the Committee on Internal Improvements, reported favorably on a bill to repeal an ordinance "to amend an act to incorporate the North Western North Carolina Rail Road Company." On motion of Mr. Forkner, the rules were suspended and the bill passed its second reading and took its place on Calendar.

By the same: A bill to incorporate the Silver Hill Rail Road Company, in the county of Davidson; favorably.

Mr. Long said that as this bill did not ask for any appropriation, he hoped it would pass, without discussion, and moved a suspension of the rules, in order to put it on its several readings.

Mr. Love said he did not like such hasty legislation. There might be powers granted in this bill, which might be objectionable, and, in order to give the Senate time to consider it thoroughly, he moved that it be printed.

Mr. Robbins said that he, like the Senator from Jackson, was opposed to hasty legislation, when there was anything involved, affecting the interest of the State; but this was a very simple question. This bill only asks for the right of way for ten miles, without asking any appropriation. They intend to build this road themselves, and he could not see the necessity for delaying it.

Mr. Osborne said it was really so refreshing to have an application to build a Rail Road, without asking an appropriation from the State, that he thought this bill ought to pass readily, and he hoped there would be no further objection to it. If an appropriation of $1,000,000 was asked for, it would pass, and as there is nothing desired but simply a privilege to build the road, at their own expense, it should pass at once.

Mr. Sweet said he was a Railroad man, and when people came forward and desired to spend their own money, to construct a Road, he thought they should be encouraged. And in the language of the Senator from Mecklenburg, it is so refreshing to hear of such propositions, that it should pass without debate, and he signified his intention to vote for the bill.

Mr. Love withdrew his motion to print, and the bill passed its several readings, unanimously.

SPECIAL ORDER, VIZ:

Report of the Committee in reference to the eligibility of the Senator from the 14th District, (Mr. Purdie,) to his seat.

Mr. Cook moved to postpone its further consideration until the 21st of December.

A. H. Galloway, colored, moved to lay the motion on the table; which was lost.

Mr. Etheridge moved to amend the motion to postpone, by striking out "21st.," and inserting "17th.," which was accepted.

Mr. Barrow opposed postponement any longer. He held his seat in the Senate pledged to support the Constitution of the United States, and here is a Senator holding a seat on this floor, of whom the Committee, to whom his case was referred, have reported that they believe him to be banned by the Howard amendment, and, therefore, not entitled to his seat. There was no necessity of delaying the matter any longer and he should vote against the proposition.

Mr. Lindsay said he differed with the Senator from Northampton, as to the report of the Committee, Said Committee was composed of eight. Only four of them had signed the report. There was a doubt whether the Senator, whose case was under consideration, was banned, and he did not see the necessity for rushing this matter through. He hoped that it would be postponed until the 4th of January, or until a decision from the Supreme Court could be had, settling this matter finally. Senators could not vote intelligently, until this question was decided. Some persons are so much in love with the Howard amendment that they are not disposed to give these grave questions that thorough examination which they deserve. Let us not act too hastily and do no man injustice.

A. H. Galloway, colored, said he understood the true meaning of the motion to postpone this question. The real object was to postpone it from time to time, and not come to a direct vote upon it, in order to gain votes for another project. He was opposed to postponing it any longer, and thereby increasing the debt of the State, by continually bringing this matter up. There were some Railroad bills on foot; he understood the game, and, if he was fooled with, he would "let the cat out of the bag."

Mr. Cook said he should have called the gentleman to order, but he did not cut him. He was in favor of postponement, because he desired more light on the subject. If he was compelled to vote as he now understood the case, he should vote to vacate the seat of the Senator. He had become favorably impressed with the Senator, although he differed with him politically, and did not intend to do him injustice.

The Senate agreed to postpone until the 17th of December.

By Mr. Rich: A bill to incorporate the University Railroad Company. [This bill provides that the Company shall have power to construct a road from any point on the North Carolina Railroad, between Durham's and Hillsboro, to the University of the State.] Referred to the Committee on Internal Improvements.

By Mr. Shoffner: A bill to incorporate Coble Lodge, in the county of Guilford.—Referred to the Committee on Corporations.

By Mr. Shoffner: A bill to amend an act to make Bank bills a set off. Referred to the Committee on the Judiciary.

By Mr. Mason: A bill to incorporate Gaston Lodge. Placed on Calendar.

By Mr. Jones, of Wake: A resolution in favor of Mrs. L. Hinton, W. R. Crawford and W. D. Crowder. Referred to the Committee on Claims.

A message was received from the House, transmitting a resolution to prevent the bringing of cattle from distenpered sections. Referred to the Committee on the Judiciary.

Also, a resolution petitioning Congress to reduce the tax on Tobacco to 10 cents on the pound. On motion of A. H. Galloway, (colored,) the rules were suspended and the resolution was adopted.

On motion of Mr. Jones, of Wake, the vote, by which the bill to sell the State's interest in Rail Road, Navigation and Turnpike Companies, &c., was rejected on yesterday, was reconsidered, and it was allowed to pass its second reading and take its place on the Calendar, after considerable discussion.

CALENDAR.

The Bill to be entitled an "act amendatory of the act to incorporate the Western North Carolina Railroad Company, and acts amendatory thereof," was taken up.

Mr. Welker moved to strike out section 9, (which gives the incorporators the right to make and discontinue branches of said Road, at will.)

Mr. Lassiter opposed the amendment.—He had had some experience in Railroads, and had become convinced, that their construction never impoverished a State, neither did he believe that the building of one Road injured another. He should vote for all Railroad projects, when he could do so without destroying or impairing the credit of the State.

Mr. Welker said he did not like to be placed in a wrong position. He was in favor of Railroads,—as much as any member on the floor; but, having New Jersey in his eye, he was opposed to giving to any one Company such powers as to establish a monopoly.

Mr. Robbins said his great desire was that the money, which had been appropriated to complete the main trunk and the branch to Paint Rock, would be used in that way, and that no other branch would be begun, until these Roads were completed.

Mr. Love offered to amend the 9th section as follows: "Provided, further, that no other branch shall be built, until the main trunk is completed to its Western terminus;" which was lost, and the motion to strike out the 9th section was lost, also.

Mr. Barrow moved to amend the 5th section, as follows: "Provided, that the State shall be entitled to a pro rata vote upon her stock, according to the representation of individual stock in the meeting."

Considerable discussion ensued. Messrs. Robbins and Osborne opposed the amendment, and Messrs. Welker and Barrow supported it.

Mr. Sweet moved to strike out the 5th section, as a substitute for the amendment of Mr. Barrow; which was adopted after considerable discussion—Messrs. Robbins and Osborne in opposition, and Messrs. Sweet, Welker and Brogden urging its adoption.

Mr. Robbins offered an amendment to the 9th section: "And no other branch shall be begun or built, until the main track and the branch road to Paint Rock shall be completed."

Pending its discussion, the Senate adjourned until to morrow, at 10 o'clock.

[The great pressure on our columns compels us to exclude the interesting debate on the bill to amend the Charter of the Western North Carolina Railroad Company.]

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

WEDNESDAY, Dec. 9, 1868.

House called to order at 10 o'clock.

Prayer by the Rev. Mr. Shaver, of the House.

Leaves of absence were granted to Messrs Candler, Bowman, Hawkins, Sykes, colored, Moring, Matheson, Smith, of Alleghany, Robinson, Malone and Siegrist.

PETITIONS, &c.

Mr. French presented a memorial from certain merchants of Wilmington, remonstrating against the passage of the bill, (introduced by Mr. French,) in relation to the weighing of rosin.

Mr. French said, in presenting the memorial, that it should make no difference in his action in the matter.

Mr. Gunter presented a memorial from certain citizens of Chatham county, in regard to the distillation of grain. Referred.

Mr. Candler presented the report from the Comissioners of Buncombe county. Referred.

John Williamson, colored, also presented the report of the Commissioners of Franklin. Referred.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES.

Jas. H. Harris, colored, from the Committee on Proposition and Grievances, reported upon several bills, with various recommendations. [The bills will be noticed, when they are taken from the Calendar.]

Mr. Barnett, from the Committee on Corporations, Mr. Seymour, from the Judiciary Committee, and Mr. Estes, from the Finance Committee, and Mr. Hodgin, from the Committee on Public Buildings, reported upon various bills, which will be noticed, when they come up on the Calendar.

On motion of Mr. Vestal, the rules were suspended, and his resolution, (reported favorably upon by the Committee,) asking the Senators and Representatives from this State, in Congress, to use their influence to have the United States law in regard to distilleries so altered or modified as to exempt small distilleries from the special tax, was taken up.

Mr. Justice, of Rutherford, advocated the adoption of the resolution, and it was adopted without debate.

RESOLUTIONS, BILLS, &c.

By Mr. Hendricks: A resolution making enquiry of the Public Treasurer, by what authority the appropriation of $500, made in 1861, for the improvement of a road from John Allen's to the top of the Blue Ridge, at or near Fisher's Gap, in Surry County, was paid to H. M. Waugh. Lies over.

By Mr. Hodgin: A resolution requesting our Senators and Representatives in Congress to use their influence to have all the Post Offices and mail routes, which heretofore existed, renewed and re-opened.

On motion of Mr. Hodgin, the rules were suspended and the resolution was adopted.

A communication was received from the Code Commissioners, transmitting several bills.

On motion of Mr. Laflin, the communication, with the bills, was ordered to be printed, and referred to the Judiciary Committee.

By Mr. Pou: A bill to authorize the Commissioners of Johnston County to levy a special tax, not to exceed 20 cents upon the $100 value, to pay for a bridge built across Neuse River, by order of the late County Court.

On motion of Mr. Pou, the rules were suspended and the bill passed its several readings.

By Mr. Stilley: A bill to amend the charter of the town of Washington.

On motion of Mr. S., the rules were suspended, and the bill, after being somewhat amended, passed its several readings.

By Mr. Smith, of Alleghany: A bill in relation to the holding of Courts in the 10th. and 11th. Judicial Districts.

On motion of Mr. Malone, the bill was referred to a Special Committee, consisting of one from the 9th., 10th., 11th. and 12th. Judicial Districts.

By Mr. Estes: A bill to incorporate Castle Hayne Vineyard Company. Referred.

By Mr. Smith, of Wayne: A bill to incorporate the Lodge of A. Y. M. at Mount Olive, Wayne County. Referred.

By Mr. Clayton, of Transylvania: A bill to incorporate Lodge No. —, A. Y. M., at Dunn's Rock, Transylvania County. Referred.

A message was received from the Senate, informing the House of the passage of the bill to incorporate the North Carolina Mutual Insurance Company.

On motion of Mr. Estes, the bill was referred to the Committee on Corporations.

By Mr. Gunter: A bill to prohibit the distillation of grain.

Mr. Bowman moved to print the bill and make it the special order for Friday next, at 12 o'clock.

Mr. Seymour said that measures like this had come up repeatedly last session, and each time were defeated by an increased majority. If the matter was brought up, a long discussion would ensue. To save time, he would move to indefinitely postpone the matter.

Mr. Stilley objected to the motion. He thought a reference might at least be allowed.

At the request of Mr. Bowman, Mr. Seymour withdrew his motion to postpone indefinitely, when,

Mr. Bowman moved to refer to the Committee on Propositions and Grievances.—Carried,

On motion of Thos. A. Sykes (colored,) the bill to amend the Charter of the town of Elizabeth City was taken up. (This bill was reported upon favorably by the Committee to which it had been referred, with the addition of a slight amendment.) After some little debate and further amendments, the bill passed its several readings.

On motion of J. S. Leary, (colored,) the rules were suspended, and House bill No. 113, authorizing the county of Cumberland and town of Fayetteville to issue bonds for their indebtedness, was taken up and passed its several readings.

CALENDAR.

House bill No. 62, to amend Section 137, Chapter 8, Code of Civil Procedure, concerning the sureties of Clerks of Superior Courts, was reached and passed its third reading.

House bill No. 57, to repeal Section 558, Chapter 1, title 21, requiring officers to make return of fees, coming up, Messrs. Bowman, Stilley and Vest defended the bill, and Mr. Seymour opposed it.

[Pending the discussion, the Chair announced the hour for the special order, viz: The bill to incorporate Green Swamp Company; when,

On motion of Mr. French, it was postponed until Wednesday next, at 12 o'clock.]

The debate continued, when,

Mr. Seymour moved to postpone the further consideration of the bill until next Thursday. Lost.

Mr. Stilley again took the floor and urged its passage.

[Here a full took place in the debate, when the Chair announced the following gentlemen as the Committee of Investigation in relation to the "Black-Mail affair: Mess. Estes, Gatling, Graham, Bowman and Wiswall.

The Speaker then administered the following oath to each of the gentlemen, who had come forward, in accordance, with the Speaker's request, to the Clerk's desk:

"You, and each of you, sincerely swear, that you will discharge your duties, under the resolution constituting you members of a Joint Committee of Investigation, without fear, favor, affection, reward or the hope of reward: So help you God."

The oath being taken, the Speaker, in presenting each of them with a copy of the joint resolutions raising the Committee, said:

"I have prepared for each of you a certified copy of the resolutions, raising the Joint Committee of which you are members. You will be governed by its provisions, the Constitution, and by parliamentary law applicable to Committees of this character. I will say, further, that since this investigation, on the part of the House, is now entrusted to your care, it is done in the belief that you will conduct it faithfully, fairly, fearlessly."]

Mr. Seymour offered a substitute, which was rejected.

On the passage of the bill, J. S. Leary, colored, called for the yeas and nays.

The call being sustained, the bill passed its third reading, by a vote of yeas 76, nays 10.

House bill No. 104, (introduced by Mr. Candler,) to authorize A. B. Jones, former Tax Collector of Buncombe County, to collect arrearages of taxes, was next reached and passed its third reading.

House bill No. 79, (introduced by Mr. French,) to better enable the Commissioners of New Hanover County to carry out the provisions of section 13, article 7, of the Constitution, passed its third reading.

House bill No. 103, (introduced by Mr. Malone,) to amend the Charter of the Caldwell and Watauga Turnpike Road, was next taken up and passed its third reading.

Mr. French moved to reconsider the vote of yesterday, by which the bill to incorporate the North Carolina Dental Association was laid on the table.

Mr. Malone supported the motion to reconsider. Mr. Foster also favored the motion, and J. S. Leary (colored) hoped the motion to reconsider would prevail.

Mr. Ellis was as much in favor of elevating the profession and of protecting the people from quacks, as any man. But he was opposed to this bill. It created a monopoly. It gave too much power, &c. It compelled any one, though he might have been practicing for years, to come into the Association, or to be excluded from practice. He, however, had no objection to having the vote reconsidered, and then postponed, in order to have time to give it a careful consideration.

The motion to reconsider was then put and carried, and, on motion of Mr. French, the bill was then postponed until the second Monday in January next.

On motion of Mr. Snipes, House bill No. 30, to incorporate the Land and Lumber Company of North Carolina, was taken up, read, and passed its second reading.

On motion of Mr. Seymour, the House then adjourned until to-morrow morning, 11 o'clock.

IMPORTANT TO SOUTHERN CLAIMANTS.—A question of great interest to Southern claimants is to be decided at the approaching term of the United States Court of Claims. The solicitor for the United States at the last term interposed the plea, in reference to the cotton cases and all other cases of captured and abandoned property, that the Confederacy was suppressed on the 1st of June, 1865, when Kirby Smith surrendered; and as all claimants under the statute must prefer their claims in the Court of Claims within two years after the suppression of the Confederacy, all claims preferred after the 1st of June, 1867, must be dismissed. It is understood that upon the previous argument the Court was equally divided—two to two. The question at the coming term will be argued before a full bench of five Judges. The decision may be different, when it is remembered that the late Congressional action has fixed the date on which the Confederacy was suppressed as the 20th of August, 1866, the date of the President's proclamation of peace.

GRANT'S CABINET AND FOREIGN MINISTERS.—The following is the latest Cabinet "slate," revised and corrected, for the week ending December 5: Chas. Francis Adams, of Massachusetts, Secretary of State; Hon. John Sherman, of Ohio, Secretary of Treasury; James Hughes, of Indiana, Secretary of War; Admiral Porter, Secretary of Navy; Horace Greeley, of New York, Postmaster General; Hon. James Wilson, of Iowa, Attorney General; Edwin M. Stanton, of Pennsylvania, Minister to England; Hon. E. B. Washburne, of Illinois, Minister to France; Gen. John A. Rawlins, of Illinois, Minister to Spain; Hon. Benjamin F. Wade, of Ohio, Minister to Russia; J. Lothrop Motley, of Massachusetts, Minister to Austria; George Bancroft, of New York, Minister to Prussia.—N. Y. Herald, 7th.

MISCELLANEOUS.

To the People of the Southern States.

NEW YORK, Nov. 3, 1868.

When the pure medicinal restorative, now so widely known as Wolfe's Schiedam Schnapps, was introduced into the world under the endorsement of four thousand leading members of the medical profession some 20 years ago, its proprietor was well aware that it could not wholly escape the penalty attached to all new and useful preparations. He, therefore, endeavored to invest it with strongest possible safeguard against counterfeiters, and to render all attempts to fabricate it difficult and dangerous. It was submitted to distinguished chemists for analysis, and pronounced by them the purest spirit ever manufactured. Its purity and properties having been thus ascertained, samples of the article were forwarded to ten thousand physicians, including all the leading practitioners in the United States, for purposes of experiment. A circular, requesting a trial of the preparation and a report of the result, accompanied each specimen. Four thousand of the most eminent medical men in the Union promptly responded. Their opinions of the article were unanimously favorable. Such a preparation, they said, had long been wanted by the profession, as no reliance could be placed in the ordinary liquors of commerce, all of which were more or less adulterated, and therefore unfit for medical purposes. The peculiar excellence and strength of the oil of juniper, which forms one of the principal ingredients of the Schnapps, together with an unalloyed character of the alcoholic element, give it, in the estimation of the faculty, a marked superiority over every other diffusive stimulant as a diuretic, tonic and restorative.

These satisfactory credentials from professional men of the highest rank were published in a condensed form, and enclosed with each bottle of the Schnapps, as one of the guarantees of its genuineness. Other precautions against fraud were also adopted; a patent was obtained for the article, the label was copyrighted, a fac simile of the proprietor's autograph signature was attached to each label and cover, his name and that of the preparation were embossed on the bottles, and the corks were sealed with his private seal. No article had ever been sold in this country under the name of Schnapps prior to the introduction of Wolfe's Schiedam Schnapps, in 1851; and the label was deposited, as his trade mark, in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York during that year.

It might be supposed by persons unacquainted with the daring character of the pirates who prey upon the reputation of honorable merchants by vending deleterious trash under their name, that the protections so carefully thrown around these Schnapps would have precluded the introductions and sale of counterfeits. They were, however only to have stimulated the rapacity of impostors. The trade mark of the proprietor has been stolen; the indorsement which his Schiedam Aromatic Schnapps alone received from the medical profession has been claimed by mendacious humbugs; his labels and bottles have been imitated, his advertisements paraphrased, his circulars copied, and worse than all, dishonorable retailers, after disposing of the genuine contents of his bottles, have filled them up with common gin, the most deleterious of all liquors, and thus made his name and brand a curse to poison.

The public, the medical profession and the sick, for whom the Schiedam Aromatic Schnapps is prescribed as a remedy, are equally interested with the proprietor in the detection and suppression of these nefarious practices. The genuine article, manufactured at the establishment of the undersigned, in Schiedam, Holland, is distilled from a barley of the finest quality, and flavored with an essential extract of the berry of the Italian juniper, of unequaled purity. By a process unknown in the preparation of any other liquor, it is freed from every acrimonious and corrosive element.

Complaints have been received from the leading physicians and families in the Southern States of the sale of cheap imitations of the Schiedam Aromatic Schnapps in those markets; and travellers, who are in the habit of using it as an antidote to the baneful influence of unwholesome river water, testify that cheap gin, put up in Schiedam bottles, is frequently palmed off upon the unwary. The agents of the undersigned have been requested to institute inquiries on the subject, and to forward to him the names of such parties as they may ascertain to be engaged in the atrocious system of deception. In consequence, the undersigned would say that he has produced, from under the hands of the most distinguished men of science in America, proofs unanswerable of the purity and medicinal excellence of the Schiedam Aromatic Schnapps; that he has expended many thousand dollars in surrounding it with guarantees and safeguards, which he designed should protect the public and himself against fraudulent imitations; that he has shown it to be the only liquor in the world that can be uniformly depended upon as unadulterated; that he has challenged investigation, analysis, comparison, and experiment in all its forms; and from every ordeal the preparation which bears his name, seal and trademark, has come off triumphant. He therefore feels it a duty he owes to his fellow-citizens generally, to the medical profession and the sick, to denounce and to expose the charlatans who counterfeit these evidences of identity, and he calls upon the press and the public to aid him in his efforts to remedy so great an evil.

The following letters and certificates from the leading physicians and chemists of this city will prove to the reader that all goods sold by the undersigned are all they are represented to be.

UDOLPHO WOLFE.

I feel bound to say, that I regard your Schnapps as being in every respect pre-eminently pure, and deserving of medical patronage. At all events, it is the purest possible article of Holland Gin, heretofore unobtainable, and, as such, may be safely prescribed by physicians.

DEAR SIR:—I have made a chemical examination of a sample of your Schiedam Schnapps, with the intent of determining if any foreign or injurious substance had been added to the simple distilled spirits.

The examination has resulted in the conviction that the sample contained no poisonous or harmful admixture. I have been unable to discover any trace of the deleterious substances which are employed in the adulteration of liquors. I would not hesitate to use myself or to recommend to others, for medical purposes, the Schiedam Schnapps as an excellent and unobjectionable variety of Gin.

NEW ADVERTISEMENT.—The next session of Edgeworth Female Seminary, under the able auspices of Rev. J. M. M. Caldwell, Greensboro, commences on the fourth Monday in January.

DEAF, DUMB AND BLIND.—We regret that circumstances prevented our accepting the invitation to attend the exhibition of the pupils of the Institution for the Deaf, Dumb and the Blind, last evening. We have no doubt that the evidences of progress were most gratifying, and that the audience was delighted at the proofs of Mr. Palmer's successful management and instruction.

Y. M. C. A.—We are gratified to be able to state that that eloquent Divine, the Rev. Dr. Duncan, of Richmond, will deliver a Lecture in Tucker Hall, on Friday evening, by invitation of the Young Men's Christian Association. Subject, price of admission, &c., to be announced hereafter.

GRAND LODGE OF N. C.—The Annual Convocation of the Masonic Grand Lodge of the State, after a pleasant session, will adjourn to-day. Much business of an interesting and important nature has been transacted. The following Grand officers have been elected for the ensuing year, viz:

Grand Master.—Gen. Robt. B. Vance.
Senior Grand Warden.—J. B. Batchelor.
Junior Grand Warden.—Samuel H. Rountree.
Grand Treasurer.—William E. Anderson.
Grand Secretary.—Donald W. Bain.

WE SEE it stated that the venerable Dennis Heartt has disposed of the Hillsboro Recorder to Mr. T. C. Evans, of Milton. The withdrawal of Mr. Heartt from North Carolina Journalism is like the removal of an old family portrait. He has been connected with the press of the State for about 49 years, and is in the 86th. year of a useful, honored and blameless life.

THE RALEIGH correspondent of the New York Times, and one of the real Editors of the Governor's paper in this city, are known to be one and the same person. That being so, the following extracts from the last letter of the correspondent will be sufficiently amusing. The author is Holden's Boswell, and has done his work of plastering, faithfully, on more occasions than one,—once, actually, in a book. Verb. sap. To the extracts:

GOV. HOLDEN'S PROSPECTS FOR THE CABINET.

Prominent Republicans in this State are confidently expecting that the honored Chief Magistrate, Gov. Holden, will be tendered a position in the Cabinet. A member of Congress from North Carolina told your correspondent a few days ago that the Vice-President elect informed him that Gov. Holden would receive a portfolio.—Mr. Holden would probably decline any office that would take him from the State, over which he presides with influence and great usefulness. His friends, all over the State, would regard his removal at this time, as a calamity. (!) Though believing that there is no position in the Cabinet which he would not worthily fill, yet they prefer his eminent services in their own State.

If, however, such an appointment should be tendered to any of the Southern Unionists, there is not one whose devotion to the nation throughout the fiery tempest of rebellion is brighter than that of the gifted Executive of North Carolina. (Whew!)

THE FREEDMEN'S BUREAU.

The order retrenching the Freedmen's Bureau has been received in this State, and will go into effect in a month. There is a large number of officers who, with a rare tenacity, have held their positions in this institution since its creation, and most of them are very desirous of continuing a while longer. The Assistant Commissioner of this section, Capt. Churr, has been in the service for eight years, and, like most of the Bureau gentlemen, understands the machinery so perfectly that he will give it up with great reluctance. As long as Congress rents princely houses, and continues fine salaries, there will always be men degrading enough to cling to Bureau agencies, though there is no necessity under Heaven for their services.

An article published in the Standard, a few days ago, affirmed that there was no use for any of the Bureau officers in this State. In its present shape, the Bureau will cost the Government much outlay, which might be profitably expended in more necessitous objects. The chief benefit of the Bureau is its educational feature. The Superintendent of Schools in each Southern State could take charge of this department. At this time there is not a particle of use for any officer of the kind in North Carolina. It is nothing but favoritism and unmitigated trickery on the part of a few tenacious Commissioners and agents. The continuation of the Bureau for another year in this State will cost the Government over $70,000.—This is a moderate calculation. Every army officer, every intelligent Republican, and the colored people are opposed to the further existence of this organization. Gen. Hinks, at present in command of the Eastern part of North Carolina, declares that its usefulness ended a year ago. This is the undoubted judgment of every distinguished friend of the Government in the State.—Its friends are a few clerks, the Assistant Commissioner, Capt. Churr, and another officer holding a very responsible position, who, within a few days, has been seen reeling with drunkenness in the streets of Raleigh.

AMONG THE new Townships laid off by the Commissioners of Wayne are two which commemorate, by title, the illustrious names of "Holden" and Brogden." It is said that an exodus of white men is threatened from these "townships."

For the Sentinel:

IMPORTANT DECISION IN BANKRUPTCY.

IN THE MATTER OF GEO. BRANDT, BANKRUPT.

The following question arose and was stated and agreed to by Mr. Jno. W. Hinsdale, Attorney for H. B. Claflin & Co., and Wolf, Mayer, Haya & Co., creditors of said Bankrupt, having entered their appearance in opposition to the discharge of said Bankrupt, and Mr. B. Fuller, Attorney for said Bankrupt, viz: "Whether, upon the attendance of the Bankrupt before the Register, at a meeting to show cause in opposition to his discharge, a creditor, who has not obtained an order of the District Court for his examination, has a right to examine him upon oath touching his bankruptcy, upon application to the Register, if such right of examination is denied by the Bankrupt."

DECISION OF JUDGE.

At Chambers, at Elizabeth City, on the 8th. Sept., 1868, by the certificate of Mr. Guthrie, of the 21st. August, 1868, this question is presented:

"Can a creditor, upon the attendance of the Bankrupt before the Register, at a meeting to show cause in opposition to his discharge, examine the Bankrupt touching his bankruptcy, without first obtaining an order of the District Court for his examination, if such right be denied by the Bankrupt?"

The order for the examination of a petitioning Bankrupt will be made as a matter of course, upon the application of a creditor, and the Register is as competent to fill up the blank, issue the summons and appoint the day and place for such examination, as the Judge.

If the purpose be to elicit facts upon which to found or base the exceptions, it would not be competent for the Register, at the request of any party, to summon any witness or person who may know, or be suspected of knowing, facts pertinent or that might assist the objecting creditor in preparing his specifications. For, in regard to such witnesses, and the facts they may know, a creditor would be left to the risk of establishing them upon the trial of the issues, as parties are in ordinary trials at law.

With such persons, and the information they possess, no one has any right to demand and obtain otherwise than as it may be voluntarily given, unless it be upon the trial of some issues or question made up.

But it is not so with the Bankrupt petitioner; in relation to such of his creditors as prove their debts, he stands upon different ground altogether. When he files his petition, he asks that, in consideration of his complying with every requirement of the law, he may be absolved from every legal obligation to his creditors.

This, it will be seen, is an extraordinary exemption that he asks, and, when he asks this, the law only allows it when he surrenders himself to be dealt with in an extraordinary way, if the Court shall see proper to exercise that power to the ends of justice. Information possessed by the Bankrupt is often important to the proper adjustment of conflicting interests between creditors—often important to defeat the establishment of an unjust claim against his estate—important often to establish justice in disputes that may arise between assignees and debtors to the estate, or as between the assignee and such persons as may claim to have liens or priorities. Then, for all such, and for all other proper purposes, when the Bankrupt files his petition, he submits himself to the order of the Court, to be summoned or ordered and examined at any and at all times, when it may seem that the ends of justice may be furthered thereby.

The Register, at or after the meeting held by him upon the petition and notice to show cause why a final discharge shall not be granted, must report that he has examined the petitioner finally upon all matters touching his bankruptcy. Then we will suppose that, at such time and place, a creditor had appeared and asked the Register, upon such examination, to propound, or allow him to propound, any proper question touching the bankruptcy, should he not be allowed to do so?

It seems to me that if this was refused, it would not be such an examination of the Bankrupt, as the law contemplates or the Register is required to make.

When the Bankrupt asks to be discharged, he must submit himself, if required, to be examined with a view to show whether he has made a full and fair surrender. And it is ordinarily not a very favorable indication, when we find one prompt to demand for himself the benefits of the law, and, at the same time, reluctant to comply with the just burdens or demand of the law.

The Register is empowered to appoint and hold his Courts and act at Chambers, and what he may do is in aid of the Judge of the District Court. Hence, I conclude that whenever an act by the Bankruptcy law is required to be done by the Court, the Register may properly do that act, unless a controversy shall arise and then the question raised must be certified by him.

The provisions of the law relied upon by the Bankrupt's counsel are mainly to provide the means by which an absent Bankrupt may be brought forward at a given day and place to be examined at the instance of a creditor or assignee. But if, when he appears without this coercive power, the creditor or assignee happens to be present and desires to examine him, he must be permitted to do so of course, unless it should appear that he has no good ground or reason to do so, but requested it merely to harrass; of which I would always require some proof before I would come to such conclusion.

The Register, Mr. Guthrie, must summon the Bankrupt before him at a given day and place, of which the creditors, H. B. Claflin & Co. must have due notice, to the end that they may examine the said Bankrupt, in respect to all matters touching his Bankruptcy.

Let this be certified to Wm. A. Guthrie.

IT WILL be seen that the Bribery Investigation Committee was, on yesterday, formally sworn in, in the House.

THE EMPRESS CHARLOTTE.—The Memorial Diplomatique states that a great change for the better has taken place in the condition of the Empress. Since the warm weather was over, she has been able to sleep, and that has produced the favorable change in her physical and mental condition. She is now busily engaged writing a history of the establishment of the Mexican Empire.

ORDINATION.—The Rev. Virginius O. Gee, of Warrenton, N. C., was ordained a Deacon of the Episcopal Church by the Rt. Rev. Bishop Atkinson, in St. James' Church in this city, on Sunday morning last. The ordination sermon was preached by the Rev. George Patterson.—Wil. Journal.

It is said that if Butler cannot bring Grant under his influence sufficiently to advance his own political purposes, he will revenge himself by resorting to the Italian method of vengeance and exercise upon the President mal occhio, or Evil Eye.

GEORGIA.—The Republicans, or Radicals, of Augusta, Ga., have in public meeting resolved that Georgia, as a State in the Union, is entitled to all the rights possessed by any other State, and that Congress ought not to attempt further interference in her affairs. This is the true ground to take. Congress has no more right to pass a law touching the exercise of the right of suffrage, or the eligibility of negroes to office, in Georgia, than one regulating the same privileges in Ohio or New York. If the Northern members of Congress shall claim the right to legislate for Georgia in respect of any matter, they will thereby concede the right of Congress to legislate for the Northern States, not only as respects that matter, but upon any and all subjects. No man can now draw a line of distinction between the political status of the reconstructed States and that of the so-called loyal States.

A REPUBLICAN OPINION OF AFFAIRS IN GEORGIA.—Augusta, Dec. 6—The republican meeting held at the City Hall last night was addressed by J. E. Bryant, formerly of Maine, but now a member of the Legislature, who referred with pleasure to the fact that Georgia was again in the Union and entitled to all the rights and privileges of any other State. He said the republican party was defeated honestly and fairly in the municipal election, and he was willing to abide the result.

Resolutions were passed pledging new fealty to the republican party and opposing further congressional interference in reconstruction in Georgia, which State is entitled to all rights of federal States in the Union.

The citizens of Augusta gave a complimentary supper to the troops under command of Gen. T. W. Sweeny, last evening, for their soldierly behavior and general good conduct while stationed in the city. The people speak of Gen. Sweeney and his entire command in the highest terms of commendation.

MR. CHASE SPEAKS OF US.—Chief Justice Chase, who has just returned from Richmond, speaks in flattering terms of the southern people, so far as he was able to judge of their feelings. He thinks there are no people more loyal or more anxious for peace and harmony between the two sections, and that if permitted to do so they would very soon recover from the disastrous results of the rebellion. The action of the Chief Justice in sustaining the motion to quash the Davis indictment was anticipated in this correspondence, but it was not expected that the vindictive nature of Judge Underwood would prompt him to dissent, and necessitate the question being certified to the Supreme Court. The Chief Justice thinks there is no doubt about his opinion being sustained by the other members of the court.—Washington Letter—Baltimore Gazette.

J. G. W. Mauk, who commanded a colored regiment at the close of the rebellion, was made brigadier-general by brevet, and afterwar is appointed registry clerk in the New Orleans post-office, has been arrested by Messrs. Hobbs and Shellcross, special agents of the Postoffice Department, and indicted for purloining money orders to the amount of $5,515. The ex-brigadier has given bail in the sum of $10,000, and his trial is set down for the 14th instant.

Gen. Reynolds' report on the condition of Texas was perhaps gotten up by that worthy military official in the belief that the Presidential election had not yet come off. It has the tone and substance of a "first-chop" Radical electioneering document.

Our Afternoon Dispatches.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 9, M.

The President states that the condition of the Southern States is worse than in 1865.

The Reconstruction Acts have only produced confusion, and he recommends their repeal: also that of the Tenure of Office Act and all acts hampering the President in the discharge of his Constitutional duty, as Commander-in-Chief.

He alludes to the enormity of the public debt, and urges measures looking to its liquidation.

He is silent on the Alabama Claims, and alludes to the Paraguayan complication, but says that the official reports have not been received.

He suggests several Constitutional Amendments—among them the election of Senators by the people.

The message is published in New York and the West, this morning, in spite of all precautions.

CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 9 M.

HOUSE.—A bill was introduced, submitting the Virginia Constitution to the people of Virginia on the 17th of January.

Butler and Washburne opposed the election in Virginia, until after the 4th of March.

SENATE.—A bill relieving the disabilities of Judge Moses, of South Carolina, passed.

Sumner introduced a bill relative to Georgia.—Only title read.

FOREIGN.

LONDON, Dec. 9, M.

D'Israeli has formally resigned the seals of office.

The Times congratulates Gladstone on a speedy formation of the Cabinet.

Bismarck is assured by the Ambassadors of England, Russia and France of confidence in the maintenance of good feeling among the European powers.

Our Midnight Dispatches.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 9, P. M.

The Senate refused, after a few paragraphs, to hear the President's message read.

Sumner's Georgia Bill is as follows:

After premising that the Legislature has failed to comply with the requirements of the Reconstruction Acts, by omitting to exact the required oath, and has done things utterly unjustifiable and requiring the intervention of Congress, the Bill declares the existing Government provisional only, and in all respects subject to the paramount authority of Congress to abolish, modify or control the same, until the Legislature complies with all of the requirements of the Reconstruction Acts and adopts the Fourteenth Amendment and subject to the fundamental condition that no change will be made infringing on the rights of suffrage of any class of citizens.

The Bill directs that the Governor elect shall call an Assembly, at Atlanta, on or before April next, excluding, unless relieved by Congress, all who cannot take the prescribed oath.

The Governor is also to be empowered to suspend or remove from office State & Municipal officers and appoint others instead.

Finally, the President is ordered to place at the disposal of the Governor such portion of the army and navy as may be necessary to preserve life, property, peace and free expression of political opinion.

The House passed the bill relieving the disabilities from Judge Moses.

Contrary to the universal custom, the House tabled the President's message, instead of referring it to a Committee of the whole, and passed a bill directing the Virginia election to be held on the fourth Thursday in May.

The Reconstruction Committee reported a bill, removing the political disabilities from some twenty persons, mostly Virginians including Gen. Anderson, formerly proprietor of the Tredegar Iron Works.

SCHOONER ASHORE.

NEWBERN, Dec. 9, P. M.

The Schooner "S. B. Nichols," bound from Nicaragua to New York, went ashore four miles West of Portsmouth, North Carolina, on Friday night. No lives lost.

PRINCIPAL OFFICES:

Atlanta, Georgia; Memphis, Tennessee; Louisville, Kentucky.

CAPITAL STOCK, $228,500.

Nett Assets of the Company, July 1st, 1868, $330,942.66.

Insures lives, and promptly adjusts and pays losses. Its principal business is with Southern States, and to them it appeals for patronage. It has ample means to fully protect Policy holders and pay all losses.

The "Southern" combines the advantage of both note and cash system, does not punish such as choose to pay cash way to go and secure a non-forfeitable policy and all the advantages of a Cash Company. The privilege of a permanent loan for one-third is granted to all who desire it.

It makes investments at home in good and reliable securities, thereby tending to make money more plenty in our midst, and to aid in developing the resources of our section, and to stop the unnatural drain of over Six Million dollars, which are being sent North for Life Insurance.

Its profits are equitably distributed among Policy holders and Stockholders.

In its organization are presented men of experience in Life Insurance, and their aim will be to make the "Southern Life" the exponent of the business, enterprise and progress of the present day.

THE EXERCISES OF THIS INSTITUTION will be resumed on Monday, the 4th of January next, under the direction of Miss MARIA ANT S. MITCHELL, as Principal, aided by Mrs. U. S. GRANT, and other competent instructors.

It is the determination of the Trustees and Principal that this shall be a School of the best grade.

No other guaranty of its character will be asked by those who know Miss Mitchell and Mrs. Grant. But the Trustees deem it right to state that these ladies are daughters of the late Professor Mitchell, of Chapel Hill, and were educated by their father with a view to the profession of teaching; and that they combine, with unusual attainments, a happy faculty for imparting instruction, and a thorough devotion to the business, which they have prosecuted with success for some years.

A Most Wonderful and Successful Invention!

NEW METHOD OF WASHING CLOTHES WITHOUT LABOR.

THE AUTOMATIC

CLOTHES WASHER AND BOILER.

Awarded the highest Testimonial wherever Exhibited.

Rev. M. W. STAPLES, Inventor and Patentee.

THIS BOILER is self-acting, and dispenses entirely with labor and the wear of clothes. The hot suds and steam by the action of fire, are driven up through tubes, poured upon the clothes, and forced through the fabric with astonishing rapidity, cleansing it perfectly without any rubbing. It has been thoroughly tested, and pronounced unequalled as a Clothes Washer, by those who have used it.

All fabrics, from the finest laces to the bed-blanket can be washed perfectly and with ease and without the aid of the rubbing-board. For Flannels it is invaluable, as the rubbing, rolling and pressing process must necessarily full them more or less.

It is truly a labor and clothes saving invention. Washing will no longer be a hardship, and washing day no longer a terror and a dread to housewives.

The invention can be used in any boiler, and the low price of the article places it within the reach of every family.

The saving in the wear of clothes will soon pay for the outlay.

It is estimated that 200 to 300 gallons of boiled suds pass through the clothes in thirty minutes; this being the longest time required for cleansing a boiler full of clothes.

Hundreds of these Boilers are being sold each week, giving perfect satisfaction.

Every Boiler sold guaranteed to do all we claim, or money refunded.

Can be seen in full operation at Lougee & Brother's.

We are selling COUNTY RIGHTS rapidly.

NEW ARRANGEMENT.

The RALEIGH SENTINEL having passed under the Editorial management of the undersigned, it will, from the present date, be conducted by him.

It will be the zealous and fearless advocate of the CONSTITUTION of the United States, seeking to bring the people back to their ancient reverence for that immortal instrument, and to restore the policy of the country to that honored standard, as the only guarantee of National prosperity.

It will do justice to the men and measures of the present day, whenever they may merit it, but it will unsparingly lash and denounce all who set themselves up in opposition to the Federal Constitution, and hold up to the public indignation corruption and imbecility in high places.

It will ardently seek the promotion of the best interests of North Carolina,—moral, educational, material and political.

THE LATEST NEWS

From every quarter, both by mail and telegraph, will be carefully collated and presented.

Full and correct market and financial reports will be given.

AN ACT

IN RELATION TO THE POWERS AND DUTIES OF CLERKS OF SUPERIOR COURTS.

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

SECTION 1. That as this act will be incorporated in the general act respecting the practice and procedure of the Courts, required to be reported to the General Assembly at its present session, by the commissioners appointed for that purpose, it will be printed in the general act and not elsewhere among the acts of this General Assembly, unless otherwise hereafter directed.

SEC. 2. The Secretary of State is required to have the third section of this act, and that portion relating to the Superior Court Clerks, printed at least weekly in four papers published in this State, and the sum necessary for that purpose is hereby appropriated from any monies in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated.

SEC. 3. The terms of the several Superior Courts of this State shall begin in each year at the times hereinafter stated, and shall continue to be held for two weeks (Sundays and legal holidays excepted,) unless the business shall be sooner disposed of.
